Whenever we welcome our passengers on board, we always start with a smile and a simple "hello". At Pullmantur we're just like you, which is why we know you like nothing more than enjoying your holiday without having to worry about a thing, whilst making the most of the very best All Inclusive. And finally, we know that our passengers join us on our cruises because they love the sea and the experience of sailing. ## Awaken all five senses whilst on board.

At Pullmantur, we cruise as we live life, to the very fullest. It's the only way we know. Personal, at a leisurely pace and without limits. We're not only experts on the seas, but also on our guests. That's why we speak their language, offering them the very best food and making sure our All Inclusive is exactly that.

Food.

We turn good things into extraordinary things. When we talk about food, what we really mean is a culinary adventure for the senses. We like to eat well and for us meal times are an important part of our quests' holidays.

Drinks.

We also like to share moments over a drink, be it a coffee, fruit juice, herbal tea, soft drink, cocktail, etc. And if those moments last for a while, don't worry, it's all included with only top brands being served.

Music.

Music is a big part of life, but it's even more enjoyable when it's live and you get to listen to it whilst looking out over the sea and seeing the moon reflecting off it. Sounds good?

Shows.

Laughter, tears, excitement, emotions, feelings... Getting lost in time and not being able to take your eyes off what is happening for a single second. All this is and much more is possible on board.

Sports.

When we're on holiday, we like to feel good. So don't miss the opportunity to go for a run on the running track while taking in the spectacular views, lift some weights in the gym or sign up to yoga or fitness classes.

Once the sun goes down.

We like to live life to the very fullest, night and day. Try your luck in a game of roulette or blackjack and then dance the night away to the rhythm of our DJ at the disco.

Children.

As soon as they're on board, our youngest guests become Trotanautas and have the time of their lives thanks to our fantastic programme of activities, whilst the adults in the family do their thing.

Flights.

Does your cruise depart from a port outside of Spain? Don't worry, we offer flights and transfers to the ship and take your luggage to your cabin*. If your cruise doesn't include flights, we'll help you find the best option for getting to the port.

The Waves.

A cruise is much more than just a boat trip. If you opt to stay in a suite, you'll have access to our premium service, The Waves, and get even more benefits for maximum well-being on board.

Check-in.

If you can't wait get on board and see
all this for yourself, check in online at pullmantur.es and avoid the queues.

The very best food, also included.

For us, eating is about much more than just sitting down at a table. It is an experience, a treat for the 5 senses and a chance to indulge our passion for food.

Using ingredients carefully sourced from the sea, mountains, countryside and olive groves, we like to experiment and be creative with our dishes, showcasing the best Spanish and international cuisine has to offer.

To ensure you get the very culinary experience on board, we have created the Pullmantur Gastrolab, an innovative initiative based on experience and passion, which will see world-class chefs work hand-in-hand with Pullmantur's chefs. Together they'll create dishes using nothing but the very best ingredients, ensuring eating on board is a truly extraordinary experience.

And who better to help us lead this initiative than 3-star Michelin chef Jordi Cruz, whose passion to offer outstanding dishes only gets bigger with each challenge he takes on.

Welcome to the Pullmantur Gastrolab.

Spectacular à la carte and buffet options.

From breakfast through to dinner, you'll be able to choose from a fantastic range of mouth watering Mediterranean dishes.

And in between meals.

We like a good snack, which is why the Brasa Grill offers delicious options for adults and kids throughout the day on all our ships.

But that's not all.

We also offer exclusive dishes designed to ensure our guests don't have to leave their healthy lifestyle at home, as well as mouth watering vegetarian dishes.

Let's not forget about the kids!

Our young guests are in for a real treat - a buffet with all their favourite food, carefully prepared using only the best ingredients, meaning it's not just delicious, but healthy too. Recipe (serves 5): Beef cheek cooked in red wine, served with potato puree and green beans:

INGREDIENTS:

1 kg of beef cheek • 250 g of onion (diced) • 200 g of carrots (diced) • 100 g of celery (diced) • 125 g of leek (diced) ½ bay leaf • 2.5 g of white peppercorns • 0.9 litres of red wine • 0.25 litres of beef stock • Cornflour • Salt • Ground black pepper • 100 g of green beans sautéed in olive oil • ½ kg of potatoes

METHOD:

- Season the beef cheek with salt and pepper.
- Place it in a frying pan and add the cold red wine, onion, carrots, celery and leek.
- Bring to the boil and add the bay leaf and white pepper, then simmer on a low heat until the beef cheek is tender.
- Set aside the beef cheek and cover.
- Add the beef cheek to the cooking liquid and reduce until it has a sweet taste.
- If necessary, add a little cornflour to thicken the sauce.
- Pass the sauce through a sieve and reheat the beef cheek.
- Serve with sautéed green beans and potato puree.

And of course, drinks as well.

We like to celebrate each moment and on our cruises, you can do just that with a glass of wine, beer, spirits, cocktails, fruit juice, soft drinks and much more. We don't think holidays are a time for half measures.

What's more, you can have any drink you fancy, well not any, only top brands, whenever and wherever you want. Order whatever you feel like. An ice-cold beer before your meal? A cocktail to sip over after-dinner conversation? A gin and tonic whilst watching the sunset?

By the way, did we mention that we only serve top brands and that all drinks are included on all our ships and itineraries, all year? round?*

*In addition to our All Inclusive, we also offer Premium Drinks Packages, which include a wide range of brands. For more information, go to pullmantur.es or ask your travel agent.

Laundry Service.

Have you spilt something on your shirt? Don't worry, we'll wash it and deliver it to your cabin for you. We don't want anything to get in the way of you having a great time on holiday.

Today, when I opened my eyes, the first thing I saw was the sun rising over the open sea. That's when I decided I'd go for a run on the ship's upper deck before breakfast. I lay in bed for another five minutes just to admire the views and then got up.

I've only been here a day and the the waiter already - the knows how I were like my coffee. his Yesterday I had frie toast with tomato and olive oil for at Tobreakfast, but today I went for the eggs and bacon.

Everyone did their own thing - the youngest went off with his Trotanautas friends, the eldest had a challenge at The Factory and we went on an excursion and swam with dolphins. Just before lunch, I couldn't decide whether to have an ice-cold beer or a Bloody Mary. It's a difficult life! We then had a mouth watering paella with a bottle of white wine at the Restaurante Atlántico. I could have been in Valencia, it was that good.

Instead of going for a siesta, I went to have a look around the Village Shopping Center. I've already seen a few things I wouldn't mind getting.

Whilst the hubby went to play padel, I went off to the Spa del Mar and got a facial to make sure I was looking my best for the gala dinner.

Before getting ready, I took a moment to relax in the cabin and send a few WhatsApp messages to friends, as well as share photos with them to really rub it in.

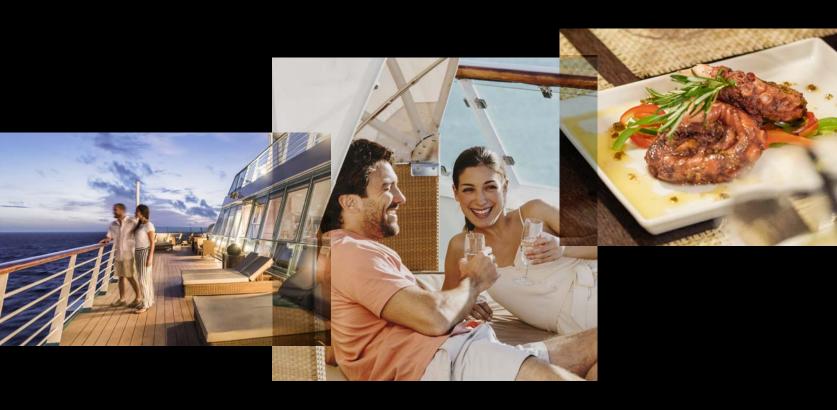

Our waiter is called Francisco. Yesterday, for my main course he recommended the hake served in pepper sauce, which was absolutely delicious. Today, I fancied a meat dish, so I ordered the suckling pig confit.

After seeing a show which could have given Broadway a run for its money, we went to the Casino Marbella. It was my first time playing roulette and we only ended up winning!

To finish up, we danced the night away to the rhythm of the DJ. It looks like going to bed early around here is mission impossible. Oh well, tomorrow will be another day... and no doubt even better than today.

Our fleet.

Each one of our ships has a unique feel.

They might not be the biggest in the world, but then again, if they were, they wouldn't be so cosy. Also, we wouldn't be able to offer the personalised service that characterises us or have the experience we have accrued over years of sailing. And our passengers like us just the way we are - honest, personal and, above all, unmistakably Spanish.

But it's what is inside our boats that makes them truly special. No, we're not talking about their restaurants, terraces or swimming pools. Or about their discos, casinos, libraries, spas or shops. This is something else.

Perhaps you can only really understand what we're talking about by joining us aboard one of our four ships. Get lost in them and let their award-winning crew take care of you. Discover their secrets, immerse yourself in a world of well-being and see how the heart and soul of our ships make everything possible. Then and only then will you discover what truly makes them unique.

Sovereign

Sovereign, like a queen. That's exactly what she is when at sea. Sailing around the Mediterranean on board this ship a truly unique experience. If to this we add 14 decks, a theatre, paddle court, running track, spa, restaurants, cafes, bars and your presence, no words can really do this majestic ship justice.

Monarch

Our biggest ship to date. This giant of the seas welcomes 2,766 passengers on board for the time of their lives. The Monarch boasts 14 decks with everything from a basketball court, casino, disco and swimming pools to terraces, a beauty salon, gym and theatre. Get ready to be blown away. Now imagine all that whilst sailing around the Caribbean.

Horizon

One of the jewels of our fleet, this ship, which sails to the United Arab Emirates on the Dubai and Legends of Arabia itinerary, stands out for its attention to detail. On board the Horizon, passengers are treated to outstanding features spread across 9 decks, which include a buffet, bars, cafes, theatre, spa, casino, gym and library, to name just a few. What's more, an impressive programme of activities ensures guests have an unforgettable experience with us at sea.

Zenith

More than just a ship, this is a place where dreams come true. This year it will venture to go where others don't, giving its 1,828 passengers the chance to discover remote locations on the Expedition to the British Isles cruise. Over its 9 decks, guests will find restaurants, cafes, a spa, gym, swimming rooms, jacuzzis, shops and much more. Each day aboard the Zenith is a true adventure to be enjoyed to the fullest.

Zenith Deck Plan.

Important information.

Before embarking.

What documents do I need?

We'll be visiting countries where Spanish citizens (including children and babies) require a passport. Don't forget to check your documents, as well as make sure your passports are in date and have the minimum period of time left on them. If you are not Spanish, check the requirements for the countries we are going to be visiting.

Can I bring my pet?

We're sorry, but we don't allow pets on board.

Can I travel if I'm pregnant?

Passengers who will be a maximum of 23 weeks into their pregnancy at the end of the cruise are allowed to travel. This includes up to the last day of the 23rd week. Pregnant passengers must provide a medical certificate showing both the passenger and her baby are in good health. This must be signed and stamped by their gynaecologist.

Is there a minimum age to travel?

Infants must be six months old on the scheduled embarkation date to be able to travel. In the case of transatlantic cruises or if a cruise is scheduled to sail for three or more days without calling at a port, infants must be 12 months old on the scheduled embarkation date.

Online check-in

We recommend you check in for your cruise online to save time during embarkation. To check in, go to pullmantur.es.

Car park service at Madrid Airport and at the Ports of Barcelona, Lisbon and Malaga.

Pullmantur offers its customers a secure 24-hour car park service

· Long-stay car park, Madrid Airport

We run a complimentary shuttle bus to the departure terminals from the long-stay car park. Please ask for prices.

· Valet parking, Port of Barcelona

Hotels in Madrid, Barcelona, Valencia, Lisbon and

If you're from another city or town and need to spend a night in one of these cities to catch your flight or cruise, we have put together a selection of three and four star hotels for you,

During your cruise.

What should I do with my luggage?

Upon arrival at the port, we will take your luggage and deliver it to your cabin for you. Don't forget to put an identification tag on each piece of luggage and keep any medicine, jewellery and valuable items with you. Before travelling, please check the list of items which are prohibited on board (Section 11.5, Safety Rules, of the General Terms and Conditions). If you attempt to embark with one of the items on this list, it will be taken off you for your own safety and returned to you when you disembark.

Where should I go when I get to the ship?

During embarkation, our staff will be waiting for you at the port to help you with everything you need to do. Once on board and during the entire cruise, we are here to help you in any way we can.

Do I need cash on board?

No, you don't. On the day of embarkation, when you're checking in at the port terminal, you'll be required to open a credit account linked to your credit or debit card. We'll then give you a card which you can use to pay for all extras on board. That way, you won't have to carry cash or cards around with you. Any purchases you make on board will be automatically charged to

If you link your account to a credit card, you'll also save time when checking out on the day of disembarkation, as you won't need to go to reception to settle your account.

Do I have to open an account on board?

Yes, we do require you to open an account. We accept all MasterCard, Visa and American Express credit cards, as well as Visa Electron, Maestro, Diners and MasterCard 4B debit cards.

Is there a dress code on board?

We encourage you to dress appropriately for special events, such as the Captain's Cocktail Party, as well as the theme nights (White Night and Tropical Night). We would ask you to refrain from wearing shorts for dinner at the restaurants. Swimming attire is not permitted in any of the indoor restaurants for any of the meals. Sports shoes are a good option and we recommend you bring a pair of trainers and sports wear with you if you're planning on doing sports on board.

How should I behave on board?

In your cabin and on pullmantur.es, you will find the list of services, which includes the on-board guest conduct policy. All passengers should read and abide by this during their stay. If passengers fail to follow the guest conduct policy, this may result in the ship's Captain ordering they be disembarked, in addition to any other measures being taken which are deemed necessary to ensure the policy is observed, this being without prejudice to all consequences which arise as a result of this failure.

Can I smoke on board?

Smoking is strictly forbidden in the cabins, on the balconies, inside the ship, in the lifts and when the ship is being refuelled (this being announced over the PA system). E-cigarettes are not allowed on board. Our ships have specific smoking areas, located on their outdoor decks. Nevertheless, we ask you to take all necessary precautions to minimise the risk of fire. Please also use the ashtrays provided.

Important information.

During your cruise.

On-board Newspaper

Each night, we'll leave the on-board newspaper in your cabin. Here, you'll find information on the port we'll be calling at the following day, times for meals, on-board activities, the evening entertainment programme and any changes to the times on the itinerary. We encourage you to read it to find out about all the fantastic opportunities we offer you on board.

Bars and Restaurants

All our ships have a range of bars on board. Each one has its own unique feel and they are the perfect place to enjoy yourself and meet other passengers.

All meals on board, with the exception of those served by room service and at the Wú restaurant (Sovereign), are included in the price of the cruise. You may have breakfast and lunch at the main restaurant whenever you wish, whilst for dinner an à la carte menu is served in two allocated sittings. The dinner sitting you have been assigned will be printed on your Pullmantur card. The buffet will be open for breakfast, lunch, evening snacks and dinner, and you're free to sit wherever you want.

Library

The ship's library offers a wide selection of books for you to read during your cruise. Its opening times can be found in the onboard newspaper.

Laundry and Ironing Service

We offer an on-board laundry and ironing service with very reasonable prices. If you opt for this service, your cabin assistant will collect your clothes and return them washed and ironed to your cabin the following day. Same-day services are available upon request (additional charges apply).

Plugs

For your convenience, all our cabins are equipped with 220v and 110v plugs. Please make sure you unplug all your electronic equipment when leaving your cabin. For safety reasons, the use of irons in cabins is prohibited.

Medical Service

For your safety, there will always be a resident doctor and nursing staff on board. They will be available during normal surgery hours and on call at all times to deal with emergencies. This service is not included in the price of the cruise. Don't forget that we offer medical insurance for just €25.

Excursions.

Ports of Call.

Excursions at the ship's ports of call are the ideal way to get even more out of your cruise. We've put together an impressive selection of excursions, all offered in Spanish and English. To book your place, go to pullmantur.es and your excursion tickets will be given to you on the first day of your cruise. However, feel free to do your own thing at the destinations we visit if you prefer. Upon arrival at the port, the local authorities will carry out the necessary checks for passengers to be able to disembark. This process takes around 30 minutes. Remember to embark before the time indicated on board.

Procedure for Leaving the Ship at a Port (Applicable to all Ships).

Passengers must leave the ship in order of priority with priority passengers and organised groups leaving first. The order of priority is:

- 1. THE WAVES Black passengers have priority when leaving the ship and may disembark whenever they wish. These passengers have a special magnetic card.
- 2. Passengers who have booked excursions with Pullmantur Cruises have priority over other passengers when leaving the ship at any port. These passengers will be organised into groups numbered by the excursions and entertainment team and will be accompanied to the exit, in coordination with the dock operator.
- 3. Individual passengers who wish to leave the ship must wait in the public areas on board and carefully follow the announcements made over the PA system, as these passengers will be organised based on the number or letter on their magnetic card. For safety reasons, passengers must not wait on stairways or in passageways, or block lifts and emergency exits.

Useful Information for the Baltic Capitals Cruise

Discover Saint Petersburg with Pullmantur Cruises:

A wide range of daytime and night-time excursions are available for purchase on board, allowing passengers to really explore the "Venice of the North". When disembarking, all passengers must show their passport and provide a photocopy of it.

Passengers who wish to get off the ship at any time of the day:

In this case, we recommend applying for an individual visa at the Russian Consulate in Spain, which will allow you to leave the port without any restrictions. This visa costs approximately €150 (although this may vary) and should be applied for at least 25 days before you travel. Although it is important we provide you with this information, we do think that the excursions we offer allow passengers to make the most of the city and you therefore may prefer to avoid the added expense and inconvenience of applying for a visa.

For passengers who would like to disembark the ship to join us on our excursions, our on-board staff will handle the documents required by Russian immigration authorities for you to be able to leave the ship, without the need for an individual visa.

At the end of the cruise.

The night before disembarking, you're sure to be busy remembering what an unforgettable holiday you've had, as well as saying goodbye to all the new friends you've made. However, please don't forget to pack your suitcases and leave them by the door of your cabin. You'll get them back on the quay as you disembark. Also, remember to remove any valuable items from your cabin's safe, as well as settle your credit account if you opened it using cash.
